Recreational Dive Training: Terms and Conditions!

Initials

i. Please understand... You pay for your training but your certification is earned.

ii. We reserve the right to withhold certification for reasons based on performance, attitude, skill, experience, knowledge, physical, mental and/or emotional conditions.

iii. All equipment provided by students must be serviced on a regular basis and meet requirements of the programs. Inquire should you have any question about your personal gear.

iv. Students are required to attend all scheduled classroom, pool and ocean sessions. Missed sessions will be billed at the following rate: Classroom: $25 per hour Pool: $50 per hour

v. Students are required to complete all required academic work prior to attending classes. Students who are not prepared to take part in pool and/or ocean dives will require rescheduling and additional charges will apply.

vi. For Continuing Education programs, equipment rental is not included but available. Arrangements must be made in advance.

vii. We do not allow any smoking or alcohol consumption during the diving programs and strongly discourage these activities 24 hours prior to and immediately after any dives. At no time shall alcohol be consumed during the process of any training program.

viii. Drugs are strictly prohibited - any evidence of alcohol or drugs during a program will result in immediate suspension without refund.

ix. Surcharges apply should additional open water dives be required to complete the program at a rate of $50 per dive.

x. All course prices do not include manual(s), E-learning programs, optional boat charter fees and ferry transportation to sites.

xi. There are no refunds for students who do not complete the program. It is your responsibility to ensure that you review the medical questionnaire in advance and have the physician form completed prior to the first diving session as required.

xii. A non refundable deposit $100 is required to reserve your spot in the program. Balance is due prior to course start.

I, _____, have read the above terms and conditions. By initialing each I have indicated that I understand them and have agreed to abide to them in whole and without condition.
